

“I’ve met many of your staff and apologists on several occasions over the years and am honored to be associated with the folks there. I’ll always be in debt to Catholic Answers because it is through your apostolate that the Holy Spirit chose to reveal Himself to me in 2007, and it led to my reversion, which saved my marriage and has born much fruit in my life beyond what I ever would have imagined. Know that you are always in my thoughts and prayers. It is precisely for this time in history that we need your work!!” – Steve, New York